ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Over the last two decades, EMDR has emerged as one of the most powerful clinical tools available to trauma therapists. In this workshop, Dr. Laurel Parnell will teach you how to integrate an attachment-focus into EMDR and to use EMDR in combination with a variety of complementary techniques.

Much of this workshop is built around videos of actual clinical sessions conducted by Dr. Parnell. These videos bring the training to life: participants can see, not just hear about, how the ideas and procedures they’re learning are used with real patients in the real world. Dr. Parnell is an EMDRIA Approved Basic Training Provider as well as an experienced and highly skilled therapist. Her workshops are as enjoyable as they are instructive, and consistently receive rave reviews.

DAY ONE

Attachment-Focused EMDR

Today, you will learn to use the five basic principles of attachment-focused EMDR. For many traumatized patients, attachment repair is a critically important component of successful treatment - a component that can be accomplished effectively and efficiently by using EMDR within a positive therapeutic alliance. Videotaped demonstrations, discussion, and practice will help you define the differences between attachment-focused EMDR and a more traditional approach.

In addition, Dr. Parnell will emphasize how the technique called “Resource Tapping” can be used to repair developmental deficits as well as to help prepare clients for trauma processing work. You will watch Dr. Parnell use Resource Tapping, will have a chance to practice the technique yourself, and will learn how to integrate it with EMDR.

➡ This course is approved for 12 EMDRIA Credits. ⬅

“This was an amazing training. (Dr. Parnell’s) knowledge, experience, and examples were crucial to learning the material.”

Dr. Parnell has written five books on EMDR, including her most recent book, Attachment

DAY TWO

Working with Adults Abused as Children

Dr. Parnell will present standard EMDR protocols in addition to modified protocols to work with this very challenging population. Victims of early abuse may easily become distressed, dissociated, or avoidant. EMDR therapists may need a specific and advanced understanding of the EMDR method, as well as additional skills, to work with them successfully. Topics addressed during the day will include: how to modify standard EMDR procedural steps with patients abused as children when necessary; developing appropriate targets; recognizing and dealing with blocked processing; using interweave strategies, working with abreactions, dissociation and memory chaining; and much much more. Participants will leave with an array of new insights, ideas, perspectives, and techniques that will help them be more effective with victims of childhood abuse.

“For many traumatized patients, attachment repair is a critically important component of successful treatment...”

Focused EMDR: Healing Relational Trauma, as well as articles, and a book chapter. Dr. Parnell is one of the most respected instructors of EMDR trainings and EMDR workshops, which she teaches nationally and internationally.
